MEMORANDUM

TO: Deans of Student Development
Financial Aid Officers

FROM: Major M. Boyd
Director of Student Support Services

SUBJECT: North Carolina Rehabilitation Association
T. L. McClellan Memorial Scholarship Awards

The North Carolina Rehabilitation Association (NCRA) will award two academic scholarships in the amount of $750.00 each to full-time students in rehabilitation and/or related studies of human service. The purpose of the scholarship program is to promote professional excellence in the practice of rehabilitation and related fields by offering scholarship assistance to students whose academic achievement, community involvement and school participation demonstrates potential for contributing to the advancement of rehabilitation in North Carolina. These scholarships may be awarded to students enrolled in degree programs at universities, colleges, community colleges, and technical schools.

The NCRA will be responsible for reviewing all applications submitted and determining the recipients. Recipients of the scholarships might be asked to attend the Annual Conference Awards program with the possibility of expenses being borne by NCRA.

The deadline for submitting completed application forms is August 31, 1998 to:
