SUBJECT: Lesson Plans for English as a Second Language

We are pleased to send you this first edition of lesson plans written and tested by ESL professionals in the North Carolina Community College System. I regret that we were unable to publish all of the lesson plans submitted in this edition. We are planning, however, to put additional ESL lesson plans on the WWW through the NC Literacy Resource Center's web site in the near future.

I hope that the plans will be helpful to both new and experienced ESL instructors. For additional copies, please feel free to copy any of the plans. You may also contact Karen O'Neal at the System Office, (919) 733-7051, ext. 739. She will have a limited number of copies available.
