MEMORANDUM

TO: Student Development Administrators
Chief Academic Officers

FROM: Karen Yerby
Associate Director, Student Development Services

SUBJECT: Service Learning Seminar

It is my privilege to invite you to attend this special event on service-learning. The North Carolina Community College System is pleased to partner with the North Carolina Campus Compact to sponsor a one day seminar on Wednesday, March 17, 2004, 9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. at Central Piedmont Community College.

The seminar is specially designed for community college faculty, staff and administrators to develop service-learning programs on their campuses. It will cover issues specifically related to service-learning at community colleges including:

- Strategies for implementing a service-learning program
- Working with traditional and non-traditional students
- Creating service opportunities for continuing education students
- Merging pre-professional training and service-learning

Dr. Bob Franco, Senior Faculty Fellow for Community Colleges for Campus Compact, will be our speaker. A noted scholar and consultant on the topic of civic engagement at community colleges. Dr. Franco is Director of Planning and Institutional Research at Kapi'olani Community College in Hawaii. He comes from an instructional background, having previously served as Professor of Anthropology and Social Sciences Department Chair.

This seminar will take place on Wednesday, March 17, 9:30 am to 3:30 pm, at CPCC's Levine Campus in Matthews, NC. The cost is $20, and includes refreshments, lunch and resources. Participants can register online at the NC website.

Please see the attached flyer or visit our website for more information or to register. I hope you can attend this seminar.
