TO: Basic Skills Directors
Community Based Organization Directors

FROM: Linda Ray
Basic Skills Training Specialist

DATE: February 10, 2004

SUBJECT: The Adult Learner Regional Training
March 16-19, 2004

The North Carolina Community College System Basic Skills Training area in conjunction with the Appalachian State University Adult Basic Skills Professional Development Project is offering four regional day-long workshops on The Adult Learner. The workshop presenter is Dr. Cheryl Knight of the project. The dates and locations are as follows:

March 16	Sampson CC Clinton, NC	161 Activity Center
March 17	Nash CC Rocky Mount, NC	Business and Industry Center Brown Auditorium
March 18	Davidson County CC Lexington, NC	116 Mendenhall
March 19	Western Piedmont CC Morganton, NC	New Continuing Education Bldg., Room 220, East Campus

Teaching adults is very different from teaching children. The Adult Learner will cover such topics as how adults learn and the physical, emotional and intellectual factors that can impact their learning; passive vs. active learning; learning preferences and implications of adult learning principles for instruction.

Register today by mailing, e-mailing or faxing the attached form to Judy Howell (mailing information on the form). This is a great opportunity for beginning teachers who have little or no background in teaching adults as well as for the experienced instructor to refresh and focus on adult instructional strategies.
