MEMORANDUM

January 20, 2005

To: Presidents
Deans/Vice Presidents of Student Services
Deans/Vice Presidents of Instruction
Counselors

From: Pamela Little, Associate Director
Student Development Services

Subject: Minority Male Mentoring Project
Best Practices Conference 2005

The North Carolina Community College System cordially invites you to participate in the Minority Male Mentoring Project Best Practices Conference 2005 on April 21-23, 2005 at the Radisson Hotel, High Point, North Carolina.

In addition to outstanding motivational speakers, the conference will include several workshops to provide information designed to help you enhance minority male participation at your colleges. Workshops will focus on activities to increase student success and will also provide intervention strategies. You will have a chance to hear some successful marketing tactics and learn of grant opportunities.

The six community colleges funded by the Governor's Crime Commission to participate in the Minority Male Mentoring Project will present their best practices. There will also be best practices presentations from colleges outside of North Carolina.

Who Should Attend?

Students, educators, administrators, public service agencies, community leaders, and others who work with students and/or mentoring programs.

Mentoring Program Showcase

Colleges not funded by the Governor's Crime Commission will have an opportunity to showcase their efforts by either making a brief presentation during a special session and/or providing a display during the conference. Due to time restraints and based on the number of presentations offered, the conference planning committee members may have to select submitted presentations. If you would like to present, please register your program at: http://www.faytechcc.edu/WebForms/ncccs/exhibit_registration.asp

National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC) credits will be available.

If you have any questions about the conference, please contact me at (919) 807-7106 or email me at littlep@ncccs.cc.nc.us. We look forward to seeing you there for an exciting and informative conference.

Thank you for your interest and support.
