MEMORANDUM

TO: Selected Presidents
Selected Chief Academic Officers

FROM: Darryl McGraw, Associate Vice President
Instructional Technology & Development

SUBJECT: North Carolina State University Program

The Department of Adult and Community College Education at North Carolina State University is requesting your assistance. They are conducting a needs assessment in the central and western part of North Carolina to determine interest in a doctoral cohort program to be offered in Charlotte and possibly in Asheville for Fall 2005. To support the development of this off-site offering, please share the following URL and related information regarding this request with your faculty and staff. Within this URL is a specific site for individual responses of interest.
