College Recommendation
Course Revision Request
WEB 250 Database Driven Website

Current Course Information:

WEB 250 Database Driven Websites 2 2 3

Prerequisites: DBA 110 and WEB 140

Corequisites: None

This course introduces dynamic (database-driven) website development. Topics include the use of basic database CRUD statements (create, read, update and delete) incorporated into web applications, as well as in software architecture principles. Upon completion, students should be able to design and develop database driven web applications according to industry standards.

Proposed Prerequisites: DBA 110

Rationale of Requesting College: The requesting college believes that students do not have to have the knowledge and skills from WEB 140 in order to do the required work in WEB 250. The requesting college believes that such change will not cause any detriment to the students' success.

_____ We have reviewed the proposed change and recommend the adoption of this change for WEB 250.

_____ We concur with the rationale of the requesting college

_____ Other: _____

_____ We have reviewed the proposed change and do not recommend the adoption of this change for WEB 250 for the following reason(s):

_____ We do not offer WEB 250 and wish to decline from making a recommendation.
