

Report on Performance Measures

The State Board of Community Colleges has adopted 8 performance measures that are used to assess community college accountability and performance funding. Data on the 8 measures have been collected and will be presented for information.