

2009 Session of the General Assembly Non-Budget Legislative Issues

| Origin                         | Description  |
|---------------------------------------|---|
| Bladen Community College              | Exempt student textbook from the state e-procurement process.   |
| CPC                                   | Allow for developmental classes and ACA classes to be taught as needed.   |
| Johnston Community College            | Request for Johnston Community College to offer JCS students the Alive @ 25 safety driving course, or run statewide bill.   |
| NC Association of Career Colleges and | Increase bond amount for proprietary schools.   |
| NCCCS                                 | Consolidate statutes/rules governing all high school programs.  |
| NCCCS                                 | Clarify use of community college facilities by public school students.  |
| NCCCS                                 | Develop flexibility language for customized training regarding occupational extension courses.  |
| Program Audit Task Force              | Amend G.S. 115D-5(m) to delete the last sentence that assesses a 25% fiscal penalty in addition to an audit exception when the exception results from nonprocessing errors, as recommended by the Program Audit Task Force.                           |
| Various College Presidents, NCCCS     | Study issue of increasing construction project threshold up to $1 million before requiring state construction process, to include making state construction review optional for colleges that are required to go through county construction review. |
| Various College Presidents, NCCCS     | Study increasing purchasing limits from $10,000 to $50,000 before State P&C process and increase purchasing flexibility regarding equipment, materials, supplies and services.  |
| On the horizon/heads up |   |
| Various GA Members                    | Reenact statute for intellectually gifted and mature students.  |
| Rep. Cullie Tarleton                  | Allow for tuition reciprocity between NCCCS and states that border North Carolina.  |