MINORITY MALE MENTORING FORUM

The North Carolina Community College System (NCCCS) will host a Minority Male Mentoring Forum on Friday, May 29, 2009. This event will be held from 9:30 am to 3:30 pm in the NCCCS State Board Room, Caswell Building. The purpose of the Forum will be to share with key individuals the benefits and use of the Minority Male Mentoring Program Strategic Action Plan. The Action Plan was developed during the NCCCS 2008 Minority Male Mentoring Conference. In addition, participants will discuss and work collaboratively to identify specific strategies to address the issues surrounding the retention of minority male students in community colleges and other higher education institutions in North Carolina.
