Finance and Capital Needs Committee to Meet Telephonically

RALEIGH – The Finance and Capital Needs Committee of the State Board of Community Colleges will meet Thursday, July 1 at 2 p.m. if a revised budget for the 2010-11 fiscal year is passed by the General Assembly before that date. The committee will meet to establish tuition for the upcoming academic year.

The meeting will be via telephone and will originate in the Caswell Building, 200 West Jones St. in Raleigh. Persons who wish to listen to the proceedings should plan to be present in the Caswell Building at the appointed hour. Because this meeting is dependent on the schedule of the General Assembly, those interested in attending are advised to call to confirm the meeting day and time.
