Growth and Employment in Pamlico County

Dr. Maria Fraser-Molina, VP of Instructional Services
Sandy Johnson-Clark, Director of Small Business Center
Richard Garrett, Chair of Continuing Education, Construction and Industrial Programs
Growth and Employment in Pamlico County (GEPC)

GEPC is a comprehensive program that provides seamless transitions to employment in Pamlico County and the eastern region within various career clusters and integrates and advances ongoing activities at the College.
GEPC Is Comprehensive

• Applies to Continuing Education and Curriculum Programming

• Strengthens Longstanding Partnerships with
  • Public County Schools
  • Businesses
  • Community Agencies: County Economic Development Dept.
  • Chamber of Commerce
  • Workforce Development Board

• It is Replicable
GEPC Provides Seamless Transitions

- Allied Health High School Classes
- Career and College Promise (CCP) Human Services Technologies (HST) Certificate
- HST Associate in Applied Science
- Multiple Entry-Exit
- Stackable/Portable Credentials
- Employment or Transfer
GEPC Integrates and Advances Ongoing Activities

• Academic/Instructional Programming
• Apprenticeships/Hands-On/Work-Based Learning
• Career Counseling/Student Support
GEPC
Alignment with Strategic Initiatives

Retooling Programs & Enhancing Courses

Increasing Retention & Completion

Creating Pathways

Strengthening Partnerships

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE & STUDENT SUCCESS
Questions?

Thank you!