Working To Meet The Workforce Needs Of North Carolina’s North Star

Rockingham Community College
NCReady4Work
March 27, 2014
Strategic Placement of Personnel

TEAM WORK

THE FUEL THAT ALLOWS COMMON PEOPLE TO ATTAIN UNCOMMON RESULTS
Developing Relationships
Meeting Workforce Needs
Utilization of Resources

- Curriculum vs. Non-Curriculum
- Customized Training
- Golden Leaf
- Perkins
Listening to Company Needs

* Meeting with Company Leaders
* Generation of Ideas
* Observation
* Hands-On Experience
Getting Our Hands Dirty
Creating Curriculum

- Operator
- Team Lead/Tech Support
- Maintenance
- Chemicals
Lessons Learned

* Start Research Immediately
* Get Involved Early
* You Never Have Enough Space
* Be Flexible
* Work Closely with Curriculum Instructors
* Be prepared
Where Are We Headed?

Employment

- Beginning
- Current
- Future

Employment
Who’s Who

* Dr. Michael Helmick – President
  HelmickM@rockinghamcc.edu
* Dr. Jan Overman, Vice-President for Academic Affairs overmanj@rockinghamcc.edu
* Dr. Robert Lowdermilk, Vice-President for Student Development lowdermilkB@rockinghamcc.edu
* Laura Coffee, Dean of Workforce Development coffeel@rockinghamcc.edu
* Sally Newman, Director of Customized Training newmans@rockinghamcc.edu
* Perry Hughes, Department Chair of Career and Technical Education hughesp@rockinghamcc.edu
QUESTIONS/DISCUSSION