

The NEW NC Community College Advising Association (N3C2A) invites you to join us for the

N3C2A UNCONFERENCE

a free event hosted by the NC Student Success Center

Friday, February 16, 2018

10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Central Carolina Community College

Chatham County Agricultural & Conference Center in Pittsboro

Learn about best practices & resources

Share your ideas & insights

Collaborate & network with peers

Help shape the future of advising in NC

Who's invited? Community college advisors (faculty and staff) are invited. Priority registration is reserved for two persons per community college and one transfer advisor per university until January 19. Registration will open to everyone on January 20. Registration ends on February 2. There is no cost to attend the Unconference!

What's provided? Lunch and materials will be provided by the grant-funded NC Student Success Center.

How do I register? Click here to register. Note: An agenda with directions and related information will be available on the NC Student Success Center website on January 8.

For more information: Contact Roxanne Newton, Executive Director, NC Student Success Center, at newtonr@nccommunitycolleges.edu.

