Reports:
Dr. Garrett Hinshaw, President, North Carolina Association of Community College Presidents
Dr. Hinshaw stated it was his honor to serve as the new president of the North Carolina Association of Community College Presidents (NCACCP). He stated his parents were teachers at Surry Community College and he has worked with the community college system for twenty-five years.

One of the first things the Association is working on is a creation of a clarity of expectations for the Association members and how do we make sure we are moving this system forward by doing the things that are necessary for our students across the state. Dr. Bob Shackleford and Dr. Deborah Lamm will co-chair a committee who will work with the community college presidents, the State Board, the System Office and with the Trustees Association to assure those expectations are clear. The Legislative priorities for the NCACCP will be brought before the State Board at the planning meeting in October for discussion. He hopes to have a solid foundation for the Board to consider for approval and endorsement for the November State Board meeting. Dr. Hinshaw said the Association would look at how the legislative message could be marketed so the people in the General Assembly understand the impacts our System has across the state.

Dr. Hunter stated that Ms. Lyn Austin has been chosen as the recipient of the ACCT’s 2014 Southern Region Trustee Leadership Award. Ms. Austin will be presented this award at the Regional Awards Luncheon during the 45th Annual ACCT Leadership Congress in Chicago on October 24.

The 2014 NCACCT Leadership Conference will be held in Charlotte September 3 through September 5. At the September 4 opening luncheon, the Governor will be joined by John Lassiter, Chair of the NC Economic Development Board; Glenn Sherrill, former Chair of the Workforce & Education Committee of the NC Economic Development Board; and Dr. Scott Ralls. Secretary of Commerce Sharon Decker is also expected to participate. Ms. Linda Weiner will moderate a panel discussion on economic development in North Carolina.

N4CSGA, Mr. La’Quon Rogers, President

On August 7, Mr. Daniel Alvarado, Shane Bryson and Mr. Rogers did a follow-up visit to the N4CSGA conference hotel site, the Double Tree Hotel in Rocky Mount, NC to meet with the hotel executives. They tasted portions of conference hotel meals and further discussed marketing strategies.

The executive board has set the dates and confirmed locations for all three division meetings. Much thought has gone into the structure of these meetings. They plan to accomplish fifty percent of their second administrative goal, to educate and engage students about issues that affect the community college system, before the fall conference begins. Each division will be responsible for selecting an issue affecting the community college system and recommend a plan of action. The N4CSGA executive board’s vacant positions are in the process of being filled.

Mr. Rogers left the board with this thought: as leaders we should be as flexible as a palm tree and have the endurance of an oak tree.
