

FOUNDATIONS

Quarterly Newsletter of the NC Community Colleges Foundation, Inc.

UPDATES

Highlights from October 25, 2018 Board of Director's Meeting:

New Leadership Elected

Chair: Jim Bryan

Vice-Chair: Susan Jackson

Treasurer: Donny Hicks

Secretary (ex-officio): Peter Hans

2018-19 Budget Approved

Statewide Marketing Campaign Discussions

Updates from NC State on $10.8 million John M. Belk

Endowment community college leadership and research grant

2019 MEETING DATES

JANUARY 22, 10 AM
APRIL 25, 10 AM
JULY 23, 10 AM
OCTOBER 16, 8:30 AM
(LOCATION TBA)

CC Works became a model across the state for the NC Works Career Coach program created in 2015 that places academic and career advisors in high schools to assist students with community college options beyond and during high school.

Kirk is also the recent co-owner of the Chatham newspapers, Chatham Record and The Chatham News.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

KIRK BRADLEY

Kirk Bradley, president of Lee-Moore Capital in Sanford and an investor in Chatham Park in Pittsboro has been a member of the Foundation Board of Directors since 2014. Kirk is passionate about the work of the NC Community College System. Kirk played an integral part in the Central Carolina Works (CC Works) public-private partnership by spearheading the intensive fundraising to launch the initiative.

Over 697,000 students enrolled at NC Community Colleges; 62% women in curriculum courses; 58% men in non-credit courses

SCHOLAR SPOTLIGHT

CHELSEA GRESCHAK

2018 Health Careers Scholarship (GSK) Recipient
College of The Albemarle

Major: Medical Laboratory Technology

Aspiration: "...to be the healthiest version of myself..."

via Facebook