

Accepted Test Instruments

The North Carolina State Board of Community Colleges Code (SBCCC) requires proprietary schools to administer “accepted test instruments” to high school non-graduates to determine their ability to benefit from training prior to admission to the school.

The following are “accepted test instruments” to determine the ability to benefit.

TEST NAME	ASSESSES	COMPANY	TELEPHONE	WEBSITE
Tests of Adult Basic Education (TABE)	Adult basic skills in reading, language, mathematics, and spelling	CTB/ McGraw Hill	800-553-9759	www.ctb.com
Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System (CASAS)	Adult competencies in reading, math, listening, speaking and higher order thinking	CASAS	800-255-1036	www.casas.org
Adult Measure of Essential Skills (AMES)	Adult skills in reading, communication, computation, and applied problem solving	Steck- Vaughn Company	800-531-5015	www.steck-vaughn.com
General Assessment of Instructional Needs (GAIN)	Adult Math and English language proficiency tests, developed to measure National Reporting System (NRS) Educational Functioning Levels (EFLs).	Wonderlic	877-605-9496	http://everythingt ogain.com/