

Module III-Death and Dying

References

Ferrell, B. and Coyle, N. (2010). Introduction to Palliative Nursing Care. Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing (3rd Ed., p. 310) New York: Oxford University Press.

Hospice- Children's Understanding of Death. Retrieved from <http://www.hospicenet.org/html/understand.html>

Hospice Patients Alliance [HPA]. Signs and symptoms of approaching death. Retrieved from <http://hospicepatients.org/hospic60.html>.

HPNA Patient/Family Teaching Sheet Respecting Cultural Beliefs (10-12). Retrieved from
<http://www.hpna.org/DisplayPage.aspx?Title=TIPS>

HPNA Patient/Family Teaching Sheet Final Days (4-12). Retrieved from <http://www.hpna.org/DisplayPage.aspx?Title=TIPS>

HPNA Tips for Nearing Death Awareness.(7-13). Retrieved from <http://www.hpna.org/DisplayPage.aspx?Title=TIPS>

HPNA Tips for What to do when a Patient Dies at Home (11-13). Retrieved from
<http://www.hpna.org/DisplayPage.aspx?Title=TIPS>

Kubler-Ross, E. On Death and Dying. (1969). New York. Macmillan Publishing: p. 31.

Morrow, A. The five tasks of dying. (2010). Retrieved from http://dying.about.com/od/thedyingprocess/a/5_tasks_dying.htm

The Patients Association. Dame Cicely Saunders quote. Retrieved from <http://www.patients-association.com/Portals/0/Public/Files/Research%20Publications/Listen%20to%20patients,%20Speak%20up%20for%20change.pdf>

Weissman, D. http://www.eperc.mcw.edu/EPEC/FastFactsIndex/ff_003.htm. Syndrome of Imminent Death, 2nd ed.